

Job Title: Consultancy to develop a procurement planning training program

Background: The objective of this consultancy is to develop a procurement planning training program

The team: Fiscal Management Division (FMM)

What you'll do:

- First activity: Develop content of training program
- Second activity: Identify target people to be trained
- Third activity: Develop training program

Deliverables: The Contractual will produce the following deliverables:

Deliverables	Content	Period for submission (calendar days)
Report	Report with details of training program	120 days

Payment timeline:

- 20% upon approval of the inception report by the IDB.
- 80% upon delivery of training program

Skills you'll need:

- Education: Professional degree and post-graduate qualifications in law, economics, public administration, social sciences or any relevant fields.
- Experience: Skilled trainer with at least 15 years of substantive experience and expertise in the area of public procurement.
- Languages: excellent oral and written English skills are essential.

Opportunity Summary:

- Type of contract and modality: Products and External Services Contractual, lump-sum contract.
- Length of contract: 120 days
- Starting date: TBD
- Location: Contractual's place of residence.
- Responsible person: The contractual will work under the supervision of Leslie Harper, Senior Sector Specialist FMM
- Requirements: You must be a citizen of one of the IDB's 48 member countries and have no family members currently working at the IDB Group.

Our culture: Working with us you will be surrounded by a diverse group of people who have years of experience in all types of development fields, including transportation, health, gender and diversity, communications and much more.

About us: At the Inter-American Development Bank, we're devoted to improving lives. Since 1959, we've been a leading source of long-term financing for economic, social, and institutional development in Latin America and the Caribbean. We do more than lending though. We partner with our 48 member countries to provide Latin America and the Caribbean with cutting-edge research about relevant development issues, policy advice to inform their decisions, and technical assistance to improve on the planning and execution of projects. For this, we need people who not only have the right skills, but also are passionate about improving lives.

Payment and Conditions: Compensation will be determined in accordance with Bank's policies and procedures. The Bank, pursuant to applicable policies, may contribute toward travel and moving expenses. In addition, candidates must be citizens of an IDB member country.

Consanguinity: Pursuant to applicable Bank policy, candidates with relatives (including the fourth degree of consanguinity and the second degree of affinity, including spouse) working for the IDB, IDB Invest, or MIF as staff members or Complementary Workforce contractual, will not be eligible to provide services for the Bank.

Diversity: The Bank is committed to diversity and inclusion and to providing equal opportunities to all candidates. We embrace diversity on the basis of gender, age, education, national origin, ethnic origin, race, disability, sexual orientation, and religion. We encourage women, Afro-descendants and persons of indigenous origins to apply.

Job Title: Consultancy for public procurement

Background: The objective of this consultancy is to develop guidelines for eGP, inputs for the legal and regulatory framework and develop a capacity building program

The team: Fiscal Management Division (FMM)

What you'll do:

- First activity: Review existing eGP system and legal and regulatory environment
- Second activity: Develop guidelines for eGP
- Third activity: develop capacity building program

Deliverables: The Contractual will produce the following deliverables:

Deliverables	Content	Period for submission (calendar days)
Report	Guidelines for eGP, inputs for the legal and regulatory framework and develop a capacity building program	150

Payment timeline:

- 20% upon approval of the inception report by the IDB.
- 80% upon delivery of guidelines on eGP.

Skills you'll need:

- Education: Professional degree and post-graduate qualifications in technology, public administration, economics, business administration or any relevant fields.
- Experience: At least 15 years of substantive experience and expertise in the area of public procurement. At least 5 years working on the topic of electronic government procurement.
- Languages: excellent oral and written English skills are essential.

Opportunity Summary:

- Type of contract and modality: Products and External Services Contractual, lump-sum contract.
- Length of contract: 150 days
- Starting date: TBD
- Location: Contractual's place of residence
- Responsible person: The contractual will work under the supervision of Leslie Harper, Senior Sector Specialist FMM

- Requirements: You must be a citizen of one of the IDB's 48 member countries and have no family members currently working at the IDB Group.

Our culture: Working with us you will be surrounded by a diverse group of people who have years of experience in all types of development fields, including transportation, health, gender and diversity, communications and much more.

About us: At the Inter-American Development Bank, we're devoted to improving lives. Since 1959, we've been a leading source of long-term financing for economic, social, and institutional development in Latin America and the Caribbean. We do more than lending though. We partner with our 48 member countries to provide Latin America and the Caribbean with cutting-edge research about relevant development issues, policy advice to inform their decisions, and technical assistance to improve on the planning and execution of projects. For this, we need people who not only have the right skills, but also are passionate about improving lives.

Payment and Conditions: Compensation will be determined in accordance with Bank's policies and procedures. The Bank, pursuant to applicable policies, may contribute toward travel and moving expenses. In addition, candidates must be citizens of an IDB member country.

Consanguinity: Pursuant to applicable Bank policy, candidates with relatives (including the fourth degree of consanguinity and the second degree of affinity, including spouse) working for the IDB, IDB Invest, or MIF as staff members or Complementary Workforce contractual, will not be eligible to provide services for the Bank.

Diversity: The Bank is committed to diversity and inclusion and to providing equal opportunities to all candidates. We embrace diversity on the basis of gender, age, education, national origin, ethnic origin, race, disability, sexual orientation, and religion. We encourage women, Afro-descendants and persons of indigenous origins to apply.

Job Title: Public financial management consultancy

Background: The main objective of the consultancy is to develop an IFMIS strategy, tools to support budgeting for results and a capacity building program in public financial management.

The team: Fiscal Management Division (FMM).

What you'll do:

- First activity: develop an IFMIS strategy
- Second activity: develop tools for budgeting for results
- Third activity: develop a capacity building program in PFM

Deliverables: The Contractual will produce the following deliverables:

Deliverables	Content	Period for submission (calendar days)
Report	IFMIS strategy, tools to support budgeting for results and a capacity building program in public financial management.	200 days

Payment timeline:

- 20% upon approval of IFMIS strategy
- 60% upon delivery of tools for budgeting for results
- 20% upon delivery of capacity building program in PFM

Skills you'll need:

- Education: Degree public administration, business administration, economics or related field.
- Experience: At least 10 years of substantive experience and expertise in the areas of public financial management.
- Languages: excellent oral and written English skills are essential.

Opportunity Summary:

- Type of contract and modality: Products and External Services Contractual.
- Length of contract: 200 days
- Starting date: TBD
- Location: Contractual' s place of residence

- Responsible person: The contractual will work under the supervision of Leslie Harper, Senior Sector Specialist
- Requirements: You must be a citizen of one of the IDB's 48 member countries and have no family members currently working at the IDB Group.

Our culture: Working with us you will be surrounded by a diverse group of people who have years of experience in all types of development fields, including transportation, health, gender and diversity, communications and much more.

About us: At the Inter-American Development Bank, we're devoted to improving lives. Since 1959, we've been a leading source of long-term financing for economic, social, and institutional development in Latin America and the Caribbean. We do more than lending though. We partner with our 48 member countries to provide Latin America and the Caribbean with cutting-edge research about relevant development issues, policy advice to inform their decisions, and technical assistance to improve on the planning and execution of projects. For this, we need people who not only have the right skills, but also are passionate about improving lives.

Payment and Conditions: Compensation will be determined in accordance with Bank's policies and procedures. The Bank, pursuant to applicable policies, may contribute toward travel and moving expenses. In addition, candidates must be citizens of an IDB member country.

Consanguinity: Pursuant to applicable Bank policy, candidates with relatives (including the fourth degree of consanguinity and the second degree of affinity, including spouse) working for the IDB, IDB Invest, or MIF as staff members or Complementary Workforce contractual, will not be eligible to provide services for the Bank.

Diversity: The Bank is committed to diversity and inclusion and to providing equal opportunities to all candidates. We embrace diversity on the basis of gender, age, education, national origin, ethnic origin, race, disability, sexual orientation, and religion. We encourage women, Afro-descendants and persons of indigenous origins to apply.

Job Title: Public investment management consultancy

Background: The objective of this consultancy is to develop inputs for a strengthened public investment management system.

The team: Fiscal Management Division

What you'll do:

- First activity: develop action plan for public investment management
- Second activity: Develop inputs for public investment management system
- Third activity: develop training program

Deliverables	Content	Period for submission (calendar days)
Report	Public Investment Management System	250

Payment timeline:

- 20% upon approval of work plan
- 40% upon delivery of inputs for public investment management system
- 20% upon delivery of training program

Skills you'll need:

- Education: Professional degree and post-graduate qualifications in law, economics, public administration, social sciences or any relevant fields.
- Experience: At least 10 years of substantive experience and expertise in the areas of public procurement, governance and public administration. Minimum 5 years of experience in conducting capacity building events.
- Languages: excellent oral and written English skills are essential.

Opportunity Summary:

- Type of contract and modality: Products and External Services Contractual, lump-sum contract.
- Length of contract: 250 days
- Starting date: TBD
- Location: Contractual's place of residence.
- Responsible person: The contractual will work under the supervision of Leslie Harper, Sector Senior Specialist, Fiscal Management Division

- Requirements: You must be a citizen of one of the IDB's 48 member countries and have no family members currently working at the IDB Group.

Our culture: Working with us you will be surrounded by a diverse group of people who have years of experience in all types of development fields, including transportation, health, gender and diversity, communications and much more.

About us: At the Inter-American Development Bank, we're devoted to improving lives. Since 1959, we've been a leading source of long-term financing for economic, social, and institutional development in Latin America and the Caribbean. We do more than lending though. We partner with our 48 member countries to provide Latin America and the Caribbean with cutting-edge research about relevant development issues, policy advice to inform their decisions, and technical assistance to improve on the planning and execution of projects. For this, we need people who not only have the right skills, but also are passionate about improving lives.

Payment and Conditions: Compensation will be determined in accordance with Bank's policies and procedures. The Bank, pursuant to applicable policies, may contribute toward travel and moving expenses. In addition, candidates must be citizens of an IDB member country.

Consanguinity: Pursuant to applicable Bank policy, candidates with relatives (including the fourth degree of consanguinity and the second degree of affinity, including spouse) working for the IDB, IDB Invest, or MIF as staff members or Complementary Workforce contractual, will not be eligible to provide services for the Bank.

Diversity: The Bank is committed to diversity and inclusion and to providing equal opportunities to all candidates. We embrace diversity on the basis of gender, age, education, national origin, ethnic origin, race, disability, sexual orientation, and religion. We encourage women, Afro-descendants and persons of indigenous origins to apply.

Job Title: Macro-fiscal management consultancy

Background: The objective of this consultancy is Consultancy to develop inputs for strengthened macro-fiscal management

The team: Fiscal Management Division

What you'll do:

- First activity: Develop tools to enhance the medium-term fiscal framework
- Second activity: develop analytical tools for macro-fiscal management including fiscal revenues, expenditures and debt management
- Third activity: Develop tools to enhance debt management

Deliverables: The Contractual will produce the following deliverables:

Deliverables	Content	Period for submission (calendar days)
Report	IFMIS strategy, tools for budgeting for results and training program	100 days

Payment timeline:

- 10% upon submission of work plan
- 20% upon submission of tools for medium-term fiscal framework
- 60% upon submission of analytical tools for macro-fiscal management
- 20% upon submission of tools to enhance debt management

Skills you'll need:

- Education: Professional degree and post-graduate qualifications in law, economics, public administration, social sciences or any relevant fields.
- Experience: At least 10 years of substantive experience and expertise in the areas of public financial management. Minimum 5 years of experience in developing IFMIS strategies.
- Languages: excellent oral and written English skills are essential.

Opportunity Summary:

- Type of contract and modality: Products and External Services Contractual, lump-sum contract.
- Length of contract: 100 days
- Starting date: TBD
- Location: Contractual' s place of residence.

- Responsible person: The contractual will work under the supervision of Leslie Harper, Sector Senior Specialist, Fiscal Management Division
- Requirements: You must be a citizen of one of the IDB's 48 member countries and have no family members currently working at the IDB Group.

Our culture: Working with us you will be surrounded by a diverse group of people who have years of experience in all types of development fields, including transportation, health, gender and diversity, communications and much more.

About us: At the Inter-American Development Bank, we're devoted to improving lives. Since 1959, we've been a leading source of long-term financing for economic, social, and institutional development in Latin America and the Caribbean. We do more than lending though. We partner with our 48 member countries to provide Latin America and the Caribbean with cutting-edge research about relevant development issues, policy advice to inform their decisions, and technical assistance to improve on the planning and execution of projects. For this, we need people who not only have the right skills, but also are passionate about improving lives.

Payment and Conditions: Compensation will be determined in accordance with Bank's policies and procedures. The Bank, pursuant to applicable policies, may contribute toward travel and moving expenses. In addition, candidates must be citizens of an IDB member country.

Consanguinity: Pursuant to applicable Bank policy, candidates with relatives (including the fourth degree of consanguinity and the second degree of affinity, including spouse) working for the IDB, IDB Invest, or MIF as staff members or Complementary Workforce contractual, will not be eligible to provide services for the Bank.

Diversity: The Bank is committed to diversity and inclusion and to providing equal opportunities to all candidates. We embrace diversity on the basis of gender, age, education, national origin, ethnic origin, race, disability, sexual orientation, and religion. We encourage women, Afro-descendants and persons of indigenous origins to apply.

Job Title: final evaluation

Background: The objective of this consultancy is to develop knowledge products for the program and undertake activities to disseminate them

The team: Fiscal Management Division

What you'll do:

First activity: interview key stakeholders that participated in the program

Second activity: Submit final evaluation

Deliverables: The Contractual will produce the following deliverables:

Deliverables	Content	Period for submission (calendar days)
Report	Knowledge products Public Procurement	120
Report	Knowledge products Public Financial Management	120
Report	Knowledge products Public Investment Management	120
Report	Knowledge products Public Macro-fiscal Management	120
Report	Dissemination activities	120

Payment timeline:

- 20% upon submission of each report

Skills you'll need:

- Education: Professional degree and post-graduate qualifications in knowledge management, communications, marketing, social science, or any relevant fields.
- Experience: At least 10 years of substantive experience and expertise preparing knowledge management and dissemination of programs
- Languages: excellent oral and written English skills are essential.

Opportunity Summary:

- Type of contract and modality: Products and External Services Contractual, lump-sum contract.
- Length of contract: 120 days

- Starting date: TBD
- Location: Contractual's place of residence.
- Responsible person: The contractual will work under the supervision of Leslie Harper, Sector Senior Specialist, Fiscal Management Division
- Requirements: You must be a citizen of one of the IDB's 48 member countries and have no family members currently working at the IDB Group.

Our culture: Working with us you will be surrounded by a diverse group of people who have years of experience in all types of development fields, including transportation, health, gender and diversity, communications and much more.

About us: At the Inter-American Development Bank, we're devoted to improving lives. Since 1959, we've been a leading source of long-term financing for economic, social, and institutional development in Latin America and the Caribbean. We do more than lending though. We partner with our 48 member countries to provide Latin America and the Caribbean with cutting-edge research about relevant development issues, policy advice to inform their decisions, and technical assistance to improve on the planning and execution of projects. For this, we need people who not only have the right skills, but also are passionate about improving lives.

Payment and Conditions: Compensation will be determined in accordance with Bank's policies and procedures. The Bank, pursuant to applicable policies, may contribute toward travel and moving expenses. In addition, candidates must be citizens of an IDB member country.

Consanguinity: Pursuant to applicable Bank policy, candidates with relatives (including the fourth degree of consanguinity and the second degree of affinity, including spouse) working for the IDB, IDB Invest, or MIF as staff members or Complementary Workforce contractual, will not be eligible to provide services for the Bank.

Diversity: The Bank is committed to diversity and inclusion and to providing equal opportunities to all candidates. We embrace diversity on the basis of gender, age, education, national origin, ethnic origin, race, disability, sexual orientation, and religion. We encourage women, Afro-descendants and persons of indigenous origins to apply.

Job Title: final evaluation

Background: The objective of this consultancy is to develop a final evaluation for the program

The team: Fiscal Management Division

What you'll do:

First activity: interview key stakeholders that participated in the program

Second activity: Submit final evaluation

Deliverables: The Contractual will produce the following deliverables:

Deliverables	Content	Period for submission (calendar days)
Report	Final evaluation	30

Payment timeline:

- 20% upon submission of draft evaluation
- 80% upon delivery of final evaluation

Skills you'll need:

- Education: Professional degree and post-graduate qualifications in law, economics, public administration, social sciences or any relevant fields.
- Experience: At least 10 years of substantive experience and expertise preparing evaluations of programs
- Languages: excellent oral and written English skills are essential.

Opportunity Summary:

- Type of contract and modality: Products and External Services Contractual, lump-sum contract.
- Length of contract: 30 days
- Starting date: TBD
- Location: Contractual's place of residence.
- Responsible person: The contractual will work under the supervision of Leslie Harper, Sector Senior Specialist, Fiscal Management Division
- Requirements: You must be a citizen of one of the IDB's 48 member countries and have no family members currently working at the IDB Group.

Our culture: Working with us you will be surrounded by a diverse group of people who have years of experience in all types of development fields, including transportation, health, gender and diversity, communications and much more.

About us: At the Inter-American Development Bank, we're devoted to improving lives. Since 1959, we've been a leading source of long-term financing for economic, social, and institutional development in Latin America and the Caribbean. We do more than lending though. We partner with our 48 member countries to provide Latin America and the Caribbean with cutting-edge research about relevant development issues, policy advice to inform their decisions, and technical assistance to improve on the planning and execution of projects. For this, we need people who not only have the right skills, but also are passionate about improving lives.

Payment and Conditions: Compensation will be determined in accordance with Bank's policies and procedures. The Bank, pursuant to applicable policies, may contribute toward travel and moving expenses. In addition, candidates must be citizens of an IDB member country.

Consanguinity: Pursuant to applicable Bank policy, candidates with relatives (including the fourth degree of consanguinity and the second degree of affinity, including spouse) working for the IDB, IDB Invest, or MIF as staff members or Complementary Workforce contractual, will not be eligible to provide services for the Bank.

Diversity: The Bank is committed to diversity and inclusion and to providing equal opportunities to all candidates. We embrace diversity on the basis of gender, age, education, national origin, ethnic origin, race, disability, sexual orientation, and religion. We encourage women, Afro-descendants and persons of indigenous origins to apply.