The Central American Monetary Board is asking for expression of interest of consulting firms, regarding a market study on regional payments systems in Central America and the Dominican Republic. The firm must have at least five years of experience in markets research, with special emphasis on banking and payments operations in Central America and the Dominican Republic. Other relevant requisites are: Must be familiar with the Central American economic integration vision; knowledge of the Central American and Dominican Republic financial markets; excellent knowledge on financial markets and payment systems; excellent command of cross-border payments; and be able to arrange a local team of experts capable to develop the market study.

The firm must be registered in an IDB/MIF country.

The study must develop the market characteristics, types of services, costs and prices, and all the relevant elements that support a regional payments design.

The study is financed by the IDB, project ATN/MT-8544-RG.

EOI shall be received by Enrique Garcia Dubon at the e-mail below. Letters must be sent to the P O Box below.
