Invitation for Prequalification

The Government of Guyana has received financing from the Inter-American Development Bank (IDB) toward the cost of the Basic Nutrition Program, and it intends to apply part of the proceeds toward payments under the contract for the design and delivery of nutrition training.

The Ministry of Health intends to prequalify contractors and/or firms for the design and delivery of nutrition training component of the Basic Nutrition Program. It is expected that invitations to bid be made in July 2004.

Prequalification will be conducted through the procedures as specified in the IDB's guidelines (current edition), and is open to all eligible bidders as defined in the guidelines.

Interested eligible bidders may obtain further information from and inspect the prequalification documents at the Health Sector Development Unit (first address below) from 0900 to 1700 hours.

A complete set of prequalification documents, in English, may be purchased by interested bidders on the submission of a written application to the same address and upon payment of a non-refundable fee of US$ 75. The method of payment will be cashier's check. The documents will be sent by courier or it may be obtained in an electronic format by e-mail free of cost.

Applications for prequalification should be submitted in clearly marked envelopes and delivered to the Secretary, Central Tender Board, Ministry of Finance, by 0900 hours on 30 July 2004. Late applications will be rejected.
