About the FOROMIC

The Foromic is the leading venue for microfinance and microenterprise development in Latin America and the Caribbean. In 2010, 1,350 people from over 36 countries attended the Foromic to exchange ideas and knowledge on best practices and strategies to promote entrepreneurship and economic activity in the microenterprise sector.

Where Leaders Connect

The Foromic provides an essential meeting place for networking and business deals between private sector investors and microfinance institutions, and numerous participants list the Foromic as their primary business event of the year. Attendees to the Foromic include:

- Microfinance institutions
- Associations of microenterprises and microentrepreneurs
- Enterprise development service providers
- NGOs and their networks
- Socially responsible investors
- Chambers of commerce
- Academia
- Government entities
- Financial sector regulators
- Financial Institution Superintendents
- Central bankers
- Multilateral organizations
- Foundations
- Private donors

Impact

Since the first Foromic was initiated in 1998, microenterprise development, and in particular microfinance, has evolved to become one of the most successful, fastest growing and efficient mechanisms for supporting income generation activities among low income people, especially women. Experience shows that financially empowered women invest in the needs of their children and communities and thereby constitute one of the most effective ways to overcome the challenges of poverty.

When the Foromic was first launched, the region had just 205 microfinance institutions serving 1.5 million clients. Today, partly as a result of the work done by Foromic and the IDB Group, Latin America has one of the most highly regarded microfinance sectors in the world, consisting of nearly 600 institutions, supporting an estimated 9 million clients and providing over $9 billion in loans, annually.

Structure and Components

The Foromic is a three-day event, with opening and closing plenary sessions, and with multiple simultaneous panels in between, for a total of 15-20 technical panels. The main issues discussed at the Foromic include:

- Women and Entrepreneurship
- Financial Inclusion and Development of Inclusive Business in Rural Areas
- Microfinance Transparency and Client Protection
- Innovative Areas such as Microfranchise and Clean Energy
- Branchless Banking and Technologies for Financial Inclusion

Additionally, the FOMIN, a member of the IDB Group, presents the annual Inter-American Awards for Microenterprise Development, which recognizes the achievements of organizations and individuals involved in microenterprise development throughout Latin America and the Caribbean.
