Project Description

The purpose of CleanTech Latin America Fund II, L.P. is to make investments in a diversified portfolio of renewable energy and clean technology companies in Latin American and the Caribbean (“LAC”). The Fund will contribute to meet the large demand expected for the clean technology and renewable energy sectors in LAC. IDB is considering its potential participation in the project with a senior loan of up to US$30 million with a tenor consistent with the life of the fund (expected at 10 years), including a 5-year commitment period.
