BANKS COUNTRY STRATEGY

The Country Strategy mentions the necessity to develop this Program in order to improve citizen security as recent evidence from the region shows that violence slows economic growth and impedes social development. To help solve this problems the program would elaborate an integrated national crime and prevention strategy. Moreover, the program would enhance the capacity of the Ministry of National Security (MNS) to coordinate projects related to violence prevention and monitor trends in crime and violence. Finally it mentions the program would support community action to prevent violence by mitigating and controlling principal risk factors.

OBJECTIVES

To assist in the reduction and prevention of crime and violence rates and the levels of insecurity of the citizens.

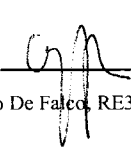

EXPECTED RESULTS

Efficient public policies regarding citizen security developed and information systems to analyze data, and efficient public policies.
