Request for Expressions of Interest

Deadline: 11 January 2010

Expressions of interest pertaining to contracts expected to cost more than US$ 200,000 will be advertised in <I>UN Development Business</I> online and on the IDB website.

The Estado de Rio de Janeiro has received financing from the Inter-American Development Bank (IDB), in the role of administrator of the Japanese Trust Fund for Consulting Services (JCF), and according with JCF's rules, in the amount of the US$ 840,000, and it intends to apply part of the proceeds to payments under the project Sustainable Development Program of Baía de Sepetiba, which includes the completion of the technical studies needed to define the environmental management strategy and the organization of the investments schedule to recover and preserve the environmental conditions of Sepetiba's Bay. The duration of the consulting services will be 18 months. The services will be carried out in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

The IDB in Brazil now invites eligible consultants to express their interest in providing the services. Interested consultants must submit information establishing that they are qualified to perform the services (brochures, description of similar assignments, experience in similar conditions, availability of appropriate skills among staff, etc.). Consultants may associate to enhance their qualifications.

Consultants will be selected in accordance with the procedures set out in the IDB's <I>Policies for the Selection and Contracting of Consultants financed by the Inter-American Development Bank</I> (GN-2350-7, current edition) and is open to all eligible bidders as defined in the policies. The selection method will be quality- and cost-based selection.

Interested consultants may obtain further information at the address below during office hours, from 09:00 to 18:00 hours.

Expressions of interest must be delivered via direct mail or e-mail to the address indicated below up to 18:00 hours (Brasília time) on 11 January 2010.
