PRICING SUPPLEMENT

Inter-American Development Bank Global Debt Program Series No: 550

IDR 650,000,000,000 9.50 percent Notes due April 15, 2019

Terms used herein shall be deemed to be defined as such for the purposes of the Terms and Conditions (the “Conditions”) set forth in the Prospectus dated January 8, 2001 (the “Prospectus”) (which for the avoidance of doubt does not constitute a prospectus for the purposes of Part VI of the United Kingdom Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or a base prospectus for the purposes of Directive 2003/71/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council). This Pricing Supplement must be read in conjunction with the Prospectus. This document is issued to give details of an issue by the Inter-American Development Bank (the “Bank”) under its Global Debt Program and to provide information supplemental to the Prospectus. Complete information in respect of the Bank and this offer of the Notes is only available on the basis of the combination of this Pricing Supplement and the Prospectus.

Terms and Conditions

The following items under this heading “Terms and Conditions” are the particular terms which relate to the issue the subject of this Pricing Supplement. These are the only terms which form part of the form of Notes for such issue.

(Condition 1(b)): IDR 10,000,000 and integral multiples thereof
7. Specified Currency
(Condition 1(d)): The lawful currency of the Republic of Indonesia (“Indonesian Rupiah” or “IDR”), provided that all payments in respect of the Notes will be made in USD
8. Specified Principal Payment
Currency
(Conditions 1(d) and 7(h)): USD
9. Specified Interest Payment Currency
(Conditions 1(d) and 7(h)): USD
10. Maturity Date
(Condition 6(a); Fixed Interest Rate): April 15, 2019
11. Interest Basis
(Condition 5): Fixed Interest Rate (Condition 5(I))
12. Interest Commencement Date
(Condition 5(III)): Issue Date
13. Fixed Interest Rate (Condition 5(I)): Condition 5(I) as amended and supplemented below, shall apply to the Notes. The bases of the Calculation of Interest Amount, Interest Payment Dates and default interest are as set out below.
- (a) Interest Rate: 9.50 percent per annum
- (b) Business Day Convention: Following Business Day Convention
- (c) Fixed Rate Interest Payment
Date(s): Annually on each April 15, commencing on April 15, 2016 and ending on, and including, the Maturity Date.
- Each Interest Payment Date is subject to adjustment in accordance with the Following Business Day Convention with no adjustment to the amount of interest otherwise calculated.

(d) Interest Period:

Each period from and including each Interest Payment Date to but excluding the next following Interest Payment Date, provided that the initial Interest Period will commence on and include the Interest Commencement Date, and the final Interest Period will end on but exclude the Maturity Date.

(e) Initial Broken Amount:

A USD amount equal to:

IDR 186,885.25 per minimum Authorized Denomination, divided by the Applicable Rate (as defined below), calculated on the relevant Fixing Date (as defined below) in accordance with 13(g) below and payable on April 15, 2016

(f) Fixed Rate Day Count Fraction(s):

Actual/Actual ICMA

(g) Calculation of Interest Amount:

As soon as practicable and in accordance with the procedure specified herein, the Calculation Agent will determine the Applicable Rate (as defined below) and calculate the amount of interest payable (the "Interest Amount") with respect to each Authorized Denomination for the relevant Interest Period.

The Interest Amount with respect to any Interest Period shall be a USD amount calculated on the relevant Fixing Date (as defined below) as follows:

9.50% times minimum Authorized Denomination

times

the Fixed Rate Day Count Fraction

divided by

the Applicable Rate

(and rounding, if necessary, the entire resulting figure to the nearest two decimal places, with USD 0.005 being rounded upwards).

The "Applicable Rate" means the rate determined by the Calculation Agent that is equal to the USD/IDR weighted average spot rate in the interbank market, based on traded USD/IDR spot foreign exchange transactions during a specified time period which are captured on a real time basis, expressed as the amount of IDR per one USD, for settlement in two IDR Business Days, as published by Bank Indonesia as the “Jakarta Interbank Spot Dollar Rate USD-IDR”, which appears on Bank Indonesia’s website (www.bi.go.id), or as published on Thomson Reuters Screen JISDOR Pager (or any replacement page or replacement service as may be implemented for the purposes of displaying the USD/IDR weighted average spot rate), or as otherwise made available by Bank Indonesia (or its successor as administrator) at approximately 10:00am Jakarta time, on the Fixing Date (such date, subject to adjustment as described below). Fallback Provisions apply as per below.

The “Fixing Date” means the date that is five IDR Business Days prior to the applicable Interest Payment Date or Maturity Date. The Fixing Date shall be subject to adjustment as follows: if the scheduled date of the Fixing Date is not a Relevant Business Day, then the Fixing Date will be the first preceding day that is a Relevant Business Day.

“IDR Business Day” means a day (other than a Saturday or a Sunday) on which banks and foreign exchange markets are open for business in Jakarta.

“Fallback Provisions”: Should no USD/IDR weighted average spot rate appear on Bank Indonesia’s website (www.bi.go.id) as the “Jakarta Interbank Spot Dollar Rate USD-IDR”, or on Thomson Reuters Screen JISDOR Page (or on such replacement page or service as described above), or be otherwise made available by Bank Indonesia (or its successor as administrator), on the Fixing Date, then the USD/IDR reference rate for such Fixing Date shall be determined by the Calculation Agent by requesting quotations for the mid USD/IDR spot foreign exchange rate from five banks active in the USD/IDR currency and foreign exchange markets as selected by the Calculation Agent (such banks, the “Reference Banks”) either (i) at or about 10:00 a.m. Jakarta time on the first calendar day (other than a Saturday or a Sunday) following the Fixing Date (if such day is a Relevant Business Day) or (ii) if the first calendar day (other than a Saturday or a Sunday) following the Fixing Date is not a Relevant Business Day, at or about 10:00 a.m. Jakarta time on the Fixing Date.

If five or four quotations are provided by the Reference Banks as requested, the USD/IDR reference rate will be the arithmetic mean (rounded to the nearest whole IDR, with IDR 0.5 being rounded upwards) of the remaining three or two such quotations (expressed as the number of IDR per one USD), as the case may be, for such rate provided by the Reference Banks, after disregarding the highest such quotation and the lowest such quotation (provided that, if two or more such quotations are the lowest quotations, then only one of such lowest quotations will be disregarded).

If only three or two such quotations are provided as requested, the USD/IDR reference rate shall be the arithmetic mean (rounded to the nearest whole IDR, with IDR 0.5 being rounded upwards) of such quotations (expressed as the number of IDR per one USD).

If only one or no such quotations are provided as requested, or if the Calculation Agent determines in its sole discretion that no suitable Reference Banks active in the USD/IDR currency or foreign exchange markets will provide quotes, the Calculation Agent shall be entitled to calculate the USD/IDR reference rate acting in good faith in a commercially reasonable manner, having taken into account relevant market practice, by reference to such additional sources as it deems appropriate; and in such case the Calculation Agent shall notify the Bank and the Global Agent as soon as reasonably practicable that the USD/IDR reference rate is to be so determined.

(h) Calculation Agent:

See “8. Identity of Calculation Agent” under “Other Relevant Terms”

(i) Notification:

If the Interest Amount payable on any Fixed Rate Interest Payment Date or the Redemption Amount, as the case may be, is calculated in any manner other than by utilizing the USD/IDR reference rate that appears on Bank Indonesia’s website (www.bi.go.id) as the “Jakarta Interbank Spot Dollar Rate USD-IDR”, or on Thomson Reuters Screen JISDOR Page (or on such replacement page or service as described above), the Global Agent on behalf of the Bank shall give notice as soon as reasonably practicable to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 14 (Notices).

14. Relevant Financial Center:

Singapore, New York, London and Jakarta

15. Relevant Business Day:

Singapore, New York, London and Jakarta

16. Redemption Amount (Condition 6(a)):

The Redemption Amount with respect to each minimum Authorized Denomination will be a USD amount calculated by the Calculation Agent on the Fixing Date with respect to the Maturity Date as follows:

minimum Authorized Denomination
divided by
the Applicable Rate

(and rounding, if necessary, the entire resulting figure to the nearest 2 decimal places, with USD 0.005 being rounded upwards).

Payment of the Redemption Amount will occur on the scheduled Maturity Date or, if later in the event of any such adjustment described above, on the date that is five Relevant Business Days in New York after the Fixing Date upon which the Applicable Rate is actually obtained, with no accrued interest payable in respect of any postponement described above.

17. Issuer's Optional Redemption (Condition 6(e)): No
18. Redemption at the Option of the Noteholders (Condition 6(f)): No
19. Early Redemption Amount (including accrued interest, if applicable) (Condition 9):
In the event the Notes become due and payable as provided in Condition 9 (Default), the Early Redemption Amount with respect to each Authorized Denomination will be a USD amount equal to the Redemption Amount that is determined in accordance with "16. Redemption Amount" plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, as determined in accordance with "13. Fixed Interest Rate (Condition 5(I))"; provided, that for purposes of such determination, the "Fixing Date" shall be the date that is five IDR Business Days prior to the date upon which the Notes become due and payable as provided in Condition 9 (Default).
20. Governing Law: New York
21. Selling Restrictions:
- (a) United States: Under the provisions of Section 11(a) of the Inter-American Development Bank Act, the Notes are exempted securities within the meaning of Section 3(a)(2) of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 3(a)(12) of the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.
- (b) United Kingdom: The Dealer represents and agrees that it has complied and will comply with all applicable provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 with respect to anything done by it in relation to the Notes in, from or otherwise involving the United Kingdom.

(c) Indonesia:

The Notes are not and will not be registered with the Financial Services Authority, previously known as the Capital Market and Financial Institutions Supervisory Agency (the "OJK") in Indonesia. As such, the Notes (including the distribution and dissemination of the Pricing Supplement, other written materials either through advertisements or other media authorized) are not authorized by the OJK for their sale by public offering in the Indonesian territory and/or to Indonesian entities or residents in the Indonesian territory in circumstances which constitute a public offering of securities under the Indonesian Law No. 8/1995 regarding Capital Markets. Likewise, the Notes and the Pricing Supplement have not been reviewed, registered or authorized by the Central Bank (Bank Indonesia) for their distribution through banking institutions in Indonesia.

(d) General:

No action has been or will be taken by the Issuer that would permit a public offering of the Notes, or possession or distribution of any offering material relating to the Notes in any jurisdiction where action for that purpose is required. Accordingly, the Dealer agrees that it will observe all applicable provisions of law in each jurisdiction in or from which it may offer or sell Notes or distribute any offering material.

  - (b) ISIN: XS1351649923
7. Identity of Dealer: HSBC Bank plc
8. Identity of Calculation Agent: HSBC Bank plc

In relation to the Fixing Date, as soon as is reasonably practicable after the determination of the Applicable Rate in relation thereto, on the date on which the relevant Applicable Rate is to be determined (or, if such date is not a Relevant Business Day, then on the next succeeding Relevant Business Day), the Calculation Agent shall notify the Issuer and the Global Agent of the Applicable Rate, and the Interest Amount, and the Redemption Amount or Early Redemption Amount, as the case may be, in relation thereto.

All determinations of the Calculation Agent shall (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding on all parties (including, but not limited to, the Bank and the Noteholders) and shall be made in its sole discretion in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner in accordance with a calculation agent agreement between the Bank and the Calculation Agent.

9. Provision for Registered Notes:

- (a) Individual Definitive Registered Notes Available on Issue Date: No
- (b) DTC Global Note(s): No
- (c) Other Registered Global Notes: Yes, issued in accordance with the Global Agency Agreement, dated January 8, 2001, among the Bank, Citibank, N.A., as Global Agent, and the other parties thereto.

General Information

Additional Information regarding the Notes

1. United States Federal Income Tax Matters

The following supplements the discussion under the “Tax Matters” section of the Prospectus regarding the U.S. federal income tax treatment of the Notes, and is subject to the limitations and exceptions set forth therein. Any tax disclosure in the Prospectus or this pricing supplement is of a general nature only, is not exhaustive of all possible tax considerations and is not intended to be, and should not be construed to be, legal, business or tax advice to any particular prospective investor. Each prospective investor should consult its own tax advisor as to the particular tax consequences to it of the acquisition, ownership, and disposition of the Notes, including the effects of applicable U.S. federal, state, and local tax laws and non-U.S. tax laws and possible changes in tax laws.

Due to a change in law since the date of the Prospectus, the second paragraph of “— Payments of Interest” under the “United States Holders” section should be updated to read as follows: “Interest paid by the Bank on the Notes constitutes income from sources outside the United States and will, depending on the circumstances, be “passive” or “general” income for purposes of computing the foreign tax credit.”

Because the Notes are denominated in the Indonesian Rupiah, a United States holder of the Notes will generally be subject to special United States federal income tax rules governing foreign currency transactions, as described in the Prospectus in the last four paragraphs of “— Payments of Interest” under the “United States Holders” section. We believe that a United States holder will be required to determine amounts received with respect to a Note (including principal and interest) by reference to the U.S. dollar value of the Indonesian Rupiah amount of the payment, calculated at the currency exchange rate in effect on the date of payment. The U.S. dollar amount that is actually received by the United States holder may differ from the amount determined under the preceding sentence, since the U.S. dollar amount of the payment will be determined by reference to the Applicable Rate as of the relevant Fixing Date. Accordingly, a United States holder of the Notes may recognize United States source foreign currency gain or loss in an amount equal to such difference (in addition to any foreign currency gain or loss otherwise recognized upon the receipt of an interest payment or a sale or retirement of the Notes). The U.S. Internal Revenue Service could take the position, however, that the amounts received by a United States holder in respect of a Note should be equal to the U.S. dollar amount that is actually received by the United States holder. Prospective United States holders of the Notes should consult their tax advisors regarding these rules.

Treasury Regulations Requiring Disclosure of Reportable Transactions. Treasury regulations require United States taxpayers to report certain transactions that give rise to a loss in excess of certain thresholds (a “Reportable Transaction”). Under these regulations, because the Notes are denominated in a foreign currency, a United States holder that recognizes a loss with respect to the Notes that is characterized as an ordinary loss due to changes in currency exchange rates (under any of the rules discussed under the “Tax Matters” section of the Prospectus) would be required to report the loss on IRS Form 8886 (Reportable Transaction Statement) if the loss exceeds the thresholds set forth in the regulations. For individuals and trusts, this loss threshold is $50,000 in any single taxable year. For other types of taxpayers and other types of losses, the thresholds are higher. Holders should consult with their tax advisors regarding any tax filing and reporting obligations that may apply in connection with acquiring, owning and disposing of notes.

Information with Respect to Foreign Financial Assets. Owners of “specified foreign financial assets” with an aggregate value in excess of $50,000 (and in some circumstances, a higher threshold) may be required to file an information report with respect to such assets with their tax returns. “Specified foreign financial assets” may include financial accounts maintained by foreign financial institutions, as well as the following, but only if they are held for investment and not held in accounts maintained by financial institutions: (i) stocks and securities issued by non-United States persons, (ii) financial instruments and contracts that have non-United States issuers or counterparties, and (iii) interests in foreign entities. Holders are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the application of this reporting requirement to their ownership of the Notes.

Medicare Tax. A United States holder that is an individual or estate, or a trust that does not fall into a special class of trusts that is exempt from such tax, is subject to a 3.8% tax (the “Medicare tax”) on the lesser of (1) the United States holder’s “net investment income” (or “undistributed net investment income” in the case of an estate or trust) for the relevant taxable year and (2) the excess of the United States holder’s modified adjusted gross income for the taxable year over a certain threshold (which in the case of individuals is between $125,000 and $250,000, depending on the individual’s circumstances). A holder’s net investment income generally includes its interest income and its net gains from the disposition of Notes, unless such interest income or net gains are derived in the ordinary course of the conduct of a trade or business (other than a trade or business that consists of certain passive or trading activities). United States holders that are individuals, estates or trusts are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the applicability of the Medicare tax to their income and gains in respect of their investment in the Notes.

2. Additional Investment Considerations:

The Notes offered by this Pricing Supplement are complex financial instruments and may not be suitable for certain investors. Investors intending to purchase the Notes should consult with their tax and financial advisors to ensure that the intended purchase meets the investment objective before making such purchase.

There are various risks associated with the Notes including, but not limited to, exchange rate risk, price risk and liquidity risk. Investors should consult with their own financial, legal and accounting advisors about the risks associated with an investment in these Notes, the appropriate tools to analyze that investment, and the suitability of the investment in each investor's particular circumstances. Holders of the Notes should also consult with their professional tax advisors regarding tax laws applicable to them.

Payment of each Interest Amount and the Redemption Amount will be based on the Applicable Rate, which is a measure of the rate of exchange between the Indonesian Rupiah and the USD. Currency exchange rates are volatile and will affect the holder's return. In addition, the government of Indonesia can from time to time intervene in the foreign exchange market. These interventions or other governmental actions could adversely affect the value of the Notes, as well as the yield (in USD terms) on the Notes and the amount payable at maturity or upon acceleration. Even in the absence of governmental action directly affecting currency exchange rates, political or economic developments in Indonesia or elsewhere could lead to significant and sudden changes in the exchange rate between the Indonesian Rupiah and the USD.

The Indonesian Rupiah is an emerging market currency. Emerging market currencies may be subject to particularly substantial volatility, as well as to government actions including currency controls, devaluations and other matters which could materially and adversely affect the value of the Notes.

The methodologies for determining the Applicable Rate may result in a Redemption Amount (or Early Redemption Amount, as the case may be) of the Notes, or an Interest Amount on the Notes, being significantly less than anticipated or less than what an alternative methodology for determining the IDR-USD exchange rate would yield.
